TOPIC: CHRISTIAN APPROACHES TO WEALTH, MONEY & POVERTY

SUB TOPIC: THE MEANING OF WEALTH, MONEY AND POVERTY.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, learners should be able to:

- Define wealth, money, and poverty as understood in the contemporary world.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students warmly and introduce the topic by stating its relevance in our contemporary society. Ask students if they have encountered different definitions or perceptions of wealth, money, and poverty in their lives.
- Explain that today's lesson will explore these concepts as understood in both secular and biblical contexts.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pgs 134-5)
- Audio-visual materials (videos or slides on economic concepts)

Learning Activities:

- Brainstorming session on students' prior knowledge of the concepts.
- Engage with probing questions to elicit thoughts on how wealth, money, and poverty are viewed today.

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Defining Wealth

- Discuss the definition of wealth, emphasizing not just monetary wealth but also emotional, spiritual, and community wealth.
- Use the Bible to reference passages (e.g., Proverbs 10:22 — "The blessing of the Lord brings wealth, and he adds no trouble to it.") to illustrate how wealth is seen as both a blessing and a responsibility.

2. Defining Money

- Explain money as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, and a store of wealth. Present its role in society and various functions it serves.
- Comparison of material wealth vs. spiritual wealth, referencing Matthew 6:19-21 about storing treasures in heaven.

3. Defining Poverty

- Explore the definition of poverty not just in economic terms (lack of financial resources) but as a state of being unable to fulfill basic human needs (food, shelter, education).
- Discuss poverty from a biblical perspective, including passages like Matthew 25:40 — "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." Highlighting the Christian responsibility to assist the poor.

4. Group Discussion

- Divide students into small groups to discuss Jesus' teachings on wealth and poverty. Ask groups to link biblical principles to contemporary issues regarding these terms.
- After discussion, invite groups to share their insights with the class.

Resources:

- KLB Book IV Pgs 134-5
- The Bible (for relevant passages)
- Audio-visual materials (to illustrate points)

Learning Activities:

- Detailed group discussions and reflections on definitions.
- Sharing insights and findings as a class.

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the key points: the broad definitions of wealth, money, and poverty, stressing their spiritual dimensions according to the Bible. Encourage students to reflect on their understanding of these concepts and how they relate to their lives.
- Mention the importance of acting responsibly towards wealth and supporting those in poverty.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pgs 134-5)

Learning Activities:

- Recap through class engagement and feedback.
- Discuss what students can apply from the lesson in real-life situations.

SUB TOPIC: TRADITIONAL AFRICAN UNDERSTANDING OF WEALTH, MONEY AND POVERTY.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Highlight some traditional African attributes to wealth, money, and poverty.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Start the lesson with a warm greeting to create an inviting atmosphere. Introduce the topic of traditional African understanding of wealth, money, and poverty. Explain why this understanding is vital in contrasting with other perspectives.

Resources:

- Chalkboard/whiteboard
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-140)

Learning Activities:

- Probing questions
- Class discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

Discuss the traditional African understanding of wealth, money, and poverty by exploring the following key points:

1. Attributes of Wealth:

- Collective success over individual wealth.
- Importance of community and social ties in achieving wealth.
- Land and livestock as primary indicators of wealth.

2. Understanding Money:

- Traditional systems of barter and trade.
- Role of money in modern contexts and how it differs from traditional viewpoints.

- The spiritual aspects of wealth and its connection to community well-being.

3. Concept of Poverty:

- Views on poverty within the community.
- The importance of support systems and communal living in alleviating poverty.
- Perspectives on helping the poor and the communal responsibility towards the less fortunate.

Activities:

- Group discussions: Students form small groups to discuss the differences between traditional and modern views of wealth.
- Probing questions: Pose questions such as "What do you think is more important: individual wealth or community wealth?" to stimulate critical thinking.

Resources:

- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-140
- The Bible (reference verses related to wealth, money, and poverty)

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions
- Class sharing of insights
- Probing questions

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize the points covered during the lesson. Highlight the traditional African values relating to wealth, money, and poverty. Emphasize the importance of community in wealth building and poverty alleviation. Prepare students for the next lesson by raising curiosity about how Christian teachings interface with African traditional beliefs.

Resources:

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Highlight some traditional African attributes to wealth, money, and poverty.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students warmly and engage them with a question to evoke prior knowledge about wealth and poverty. For example, "What does wealth mean to you?"
- Briefly introduce the topic of the lesson, discussing the importance of understanding different cultural perspectives on wealth and poverty.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-40

Learning Activities:

- Probing questions
- Discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Discussion of Traditional African Concepts

- Begin by outlining traditional African views on wealth, emphasizing community wealth over individual wealth. Provide examples of communal resources and how they are viewed as wealth in some African societies.
- Discuss the contrast between money (as a physical currency) and wealth in terms of social relations and cultural values.
- Explore how poverty is understood traditionally, addressing that it may not solely relate to financial shortage but rather the disruption of community ties and loss of connection.

2. Group Activity

- Divide students into small groups. Each group should discuss various attributes of wealth and poverty as understood in their culture or a specific African culture (e.g., communal living, sharing, respect, and relationships). They can also refer to KLB BOOK IV for illustrative examples.
- Encourage students to share their findings with the class afterward.

3. Use of Biblical Reference

- Facilitate a discussion on how the teachings in The Bible can relate to traditional African understandings of wealth, money, and poverty, drawing on scriptures that emphasize communal support and charity.

Resources:

- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-40
- The Bible

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions
- Class sharing presentations

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the key points discussed in class, emphasizing the important attributes of traditional African understanding of wealth and how they differ from contemporary views.
- Prepare students for the next lesson by highlighting that wealth is not just about material possessions but also encompasses relationships and societal contribution, which will be explored further.

Resources:

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Highlight some traditional African attributes to wealth, money, and poverty.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin the lesson with a warm greeting: Introduce the topic by stating the importance of understanding wealth, money, and poverty from both traditional African and Christian perspectives. Encourage students to reflect on their own views of wealth and poverty in their communities.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook: KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-40

Learning Activities:

- Probing questions
- Discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Discussion of Traditional African Attributes:

- Explain how traditional African societies perceive wealth, money, and poverty, emphasizing community, relationships, and spiritual aspects. Highlight that wealth is often seen as collective, where sharing and supporting others is vital.
- Discuss attributes such as livestock, land, and community service as markers of wealth, contrasting it with the individualistic nature of wealth in contemporary contexts.

2. Probing Questions:

- What does wealth mean in your culture?
- How do traditional beliefs influence one's view of money and poverty?

- Can you identify any African proverbs or sayings that reflect these beliefs?

3. Interactive Activity:

- Divide students into small groups. Assign each group a traditional African proverb related to wealth, money, or poverty. Ask them to interpret the proverb and present their views to the class.
- Facilitate a class discussion on how these interpretations connect to the broader themes of wealth, money, and poverty.

4. Reflection on Christian Perspectives:

- Briefly tie traditional views to Christian teachings from the Bible regarding wealth and charity, highlighting any contrasts or commonalities.

Resources:

- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 136-40
- The Bible

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions
- Presentation of proverbs
- Class discussion

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize the lesson's key points, focusing on the collective view of wealth in traditional African cultures and the role of community in addressing poverty. Emphasize the importance of sharing and caring for one another as indicated in both traditional views and Christian teachings. Prepare students for the next lesson by teasing the upcoming topic related to modern interpretations of wealth and poverty.

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to discuss the impact of the introduction of money in the economy of traditional African society.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Greet the students warmly. Introduce the topic by explaining the significance of money in economy, specifically in the context of traditional African society. Highlight how the introduction of money transformed trade and social relations.

Resources used:

- Chalkboard/whiteboard.
- A piece of chalk/marker pen.
- Textbook (KLB Book IV, Pgs 140-142).

Learning Activities:

- Probing questions to assess prior knowledge about bartering systems.
- Brief discussion on students' understanding of money before the lesson begins.

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

Engage students in a detailed exploration of the topic by dividing them into small groups. Each group will discuss various aspects of the introduction of money, such as:

1. The shift from a barter system to a money economy.
2. Impacts on trade and commerce in traditional societies.
3. The social implications of the introduction of money (e.g., social stratification, wealth accumulation, and community relationships).
4. Relevance of biblical teachings related to wealth and money, referencing The Bible for moral insights.

Encourage groups to present their findings, leading to a larger classroom discussion to consolidate knowledge. Emphasize critical thinking and personal reflections during discussions. Conclude this section by summarizing key impacts discussed.

Resources used:

- KLB Book IV, Pgs 140-142.
- The Bible for references to wealth and morality.

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions and presentations.
- Class discussions moderated by the teacher.
- Use of probing questions to stimulate deeper thought and understanding.

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize the lesson by reiterating the fundamental impacts of the introduction of money on traditional African economies and societies. Highlight key insights from the discussions, and encourage students to think about how these concepts apply in contemporary settings. Briefly mention the next lesson to generate interest.

Resources used:

1. Highlight some Christian teachings on wealth, money, and poverty.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin with a warm greeting to engage students. Introduce the topic of Christian teachings on wealth, money, and poverty, highlighting its relevance in today's world. State that the lesson will cover perspectives from both the Old and New Testaments.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook

Learning Activities:

- Brief discussion to gauge prior knowledge
- Overview presentation of the topic

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Exploration of Old Testament Teachings on Wealth and Poverty (15 minutes):

- Discuss passages like Proverbs 30:8-9, which speaks about the dangers of wealth and poverty.
- Explore Deuteronomy 15:7-11, which outlines care for the poor, encouraging generosity and ensuring justice.
- Discuss the concept of Jubilee from Leviticus 25:10-13, which emphasizes redistribution of wealth and freedom for the oppressed.

2. Exploration of New Testament Teachings on Wealth and Poverty (15 minutes):

- Analyze Jesus' teachings in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 6:24), specifically the idea that one cannot serve both God and money.
- Consider the Parable of the Rich Fool (Luke 12:16-21) to illustrate the folly of greed.

- Discuss the early church's practices in Acts 4:32-35 regarding sharing possessions and caring for the needy.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB Book IV, Pgs 142-148
- Audio-visual material (e.g., video clips illustrating relevant scripture)

Learning Activities:

- Group readings of selected scripture
- Narrations of the Parables
- Small group discussions on interpretations and implications of teachings

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize key teachings from both Testaments regarding wealth, money, and poverty, emphasizing the Christian call to care for the poor and the caution against greed. Prepare students for the next lesson by hinting at how these teachings influence Christian behavior in contemporary society.

- Explain the significance of understanding wealth and poverty in the light of Christian teachings, referencing both the Old and New Testaments.

Resources:

- The Bible
- Audio-visual material
- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 142-8

Learning Activities:

- Bible reading
- Narrations
- Discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. New Testament Teachings:

- Discuss key verses, such as Matthew 6:19-21 (Do not store up for yourself treasures on earth...) and Luke 12:15 (Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed...).
- Highlight the teachings of Jesus regarding the rich young ruler (Mark 10:17-27) who was instructed to sell all he had and give to the poor.
- Discuss how early Christian communities shared their wealth and resources (Acts 2:44-45).

2. Old Testament Teachings:

- Explore Proverbs 11:24-25 which describes the generous and the impact of giving/inequitable distribution of wealth.
- Discuss the concept of Jubilee (Leviticus 25) and its implications for economic justice and care for the poor.
- Emphasize God's concern for the marginalized and the call for compassion (Deuteronomy 15:7-11 on generosity towards the poor).

3. Group Discussion:

- Divide students into small groups to discuss what these teachings mean today. Have them consider how these principles can be applied in their lives and community.
- After discussions, each group can narrate their conclusions to the class.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students and introduce the topic of Christian teachings on wealth, money, and poverty. Explain its relevance in today's society and how understanding these teachings can impact their lives and decisions. Set the tone for an engaging lesson by asking students what they think about wealth and poverty in a modern context.

Resources:

- The Bible
- Audio-visual material
- KLB Book IV Pg 142-8

Learning Activities:

- Bible reading
- Narrations
- Discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

- Begin by discussing key themes and biblical verses from both the Old and New Testaments regarding wealth, money, and poverty. Use verses such as Proverbs 11:28, Matthew 6:24, and Luke 12:15 to highlight how wealth should not define one's value or relationship with God.
- Encourage students to share reflections on these verses.

Divide students into small groups and provide each group with specific scriptures to analyze:

- Group 1: Old Testament (e.g., Deuteronomy 15:7-11, Ecclesiastes 5:10)
- Group 2: New Testament (e.g., 1 Timothy 6:10, Mark 10:17-27)

- Ask each group to prepare a short narration on their assigned scripture, discussing what the verse teaches about wealth, money, and poverty. Once they are ready, have each group present their findings to the class.
- Facilitate a discussion after each presentation to draw connections to contemporary issues like economic inequality and the Christian call to service and generosity.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB Book IV Pg 142-8
- Audio-visual material

Learning Activities:

- Scripture analysis (group work)
- Group narrations
- Class discussion

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the main points discussed in the lesson, highlighting key Christian teachings on wealth and poverty. Reinforce the idea that wealth should be used responsibly and that Christians are called to care for the less fortunate.
- Encourage students to reflect on how they can apply these teachings in their own lives. Prepare them for the next lesson by hinting at potential discussions regarding practical applications of these teachings in today's world.

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Highlight some Christian teachings on distribution of wealth.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin with a warm greeting to the students to create a welcoming atmosphere. Introduce the lesson by explaining the importance of understanding Christian perspectives on wealth distribution. Engage the students by asking them if they can think of any Bible verses related to wealth and sharing. This will stir up curiosity and set the stage for the lesson.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pges 149-51)

Learning Activities:

- Bible reading
- Class discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Discussion of Biblical Texts:

- Read and analyze relevant Bible verses (e.g., Luke 12:15-21, Matthew 25:14-30). Highlight key messages regarding the ownership and use of wealth.
- Discuss the parable of the Good Samaritan and how it reflects actions taken for the welfare of others.

2. Group Activity:

- Divide the class into small groups. Assign each group a specific Biblical passage on wealth distribution. Ask them to identify and explain how these passages guide Christians in their sharing of wealth.
- Groups will then summarize their findings in a short presentation to the class.

3. Class Discussion:

- Open the floor for discussion. Prompt students with questions like: "What do you think the Bible teaches us about the responsibility of wealth?" and "How should wealth be distributed in a community?"
- Encourage students to share personal reflections and connect these teachings to modern-day issues of wealth inequality.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB BOOK IV Pges 149-51
- Relevant print media extracts

Learning Activities:

- Bible reading
- Group work
- Presentations
- Class discussion

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize the key teachings about wealth distribution found in Christian doctrine, emphasizing themes of generosity, stewardship, and community responsibility. Highlight the importance of using wealth to benefit others and the call for Christians to act justly in their financial dealings. Prepare students for the next lesson by proposing they think about a practical way they can contribute to their community with their own resources.

- Highlight some Christian teachings on bribery and corruption.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin with a warm greeting, encouraging students to express their thoughts on honesty in their daily lives. Introduce the topic of 'Christian Teaching on Bribery and Corruption' by asking students if they have heard any teachings or stories from the Bible addressing these issues. Engage students briefly to generate interest in the lesson.

Resources:

- Chalk board/White board
- A piece of chalk/Marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pg 151-153)

Learning Activities:

- Class discussion
- Question prompts

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Exposition (10 minutes):

Provide a detailed overview of Christian teachings regarding bribery and corruption. Reference specific Bible verses, e.g., Proverbs 17:23 ("A wicked man takes a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment") and Micah 6:10-11, to highlight the moral standpoint of Christianity against such practices. Discuss how these teachings apply to modern society and governance.

2. Probing Questions (10 minutes):

Pose questions such as:

- What do you think are the consequences of bribery in a community?
- How can Christians combat corruption?

Allow students to share their thoughts and encourage them to provide examples from current events or personal experiences.

3. Giving Relevant Examples (5 minutes):

Present real-life cases of bribery and corruption reported in news articles or analyzed in textbooks. Discuss how these cases could have been different if Christian teachings were followed.

4. Discussion (5 minutes):

Facilitate a group discussion where students can express their views on how Christian teachings can be implemented to discourage corruption in everyday life.

Conclude this section by summarizing the main points discussed.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB BOOK IV Pg 151-153

Learning Activities:

SUB TOPIC: THE MEANING OF LAW, ORDER AND JUSTICE.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Define law, order, and justice as understood in the contemporary world.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students warmly and introduce the topic of the day: the meaning of law, order, and justice. Discuss briefly how these concepts play a crucial role in society and their relevance from a Christian perspective.
- Begin with a thought-provoking question: "Why do we need laws and order in our society?"
- Write down the objectives for the lesson on the board to outline what the students will learn.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pg 154-156)

Learning Activities:

- Brainstorming session
- Probing questions

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

- Start the session with a brief definition of 'Law' as established rules and guidelines governing behavior in society. Ask students for examples of laws they are familiar with.
- Move to 'Order' – discuss how order is the arrangement and organization of society and how laws contribute to maintaining order. Engage the students in a discussion about what happens without order.
- Finally, introduce 'Justice' - explain that justice is the principle of fairness and moral rightness and discuss how laws serve the cause of justice in society. Refer to Biblical passages that touch on justice (e.g., Micah 6:8) to illustrate points.

- Divide the students into small groups and assign them a short activity: discuss a real-world scenario where law, order, and justice interact, then present their findings to the class.

Conclude this section by summarizing how these three concepts interlink and their importance from a Christian viewpoint.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB BOOK IV Pg 154-156

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions
- Hands-on activity (real-world scenarios)

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the main points covered in the lesson: definitions of law, order, and justice and how these concepts are essential to society and reflect Christian teachings.
- Encourage students to think about how they can apply these concepts in their own lives and communities and prepare them for the next lesson-related topic, which may delve deeper into issues of justice in different societies.

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Explain the role of law, order, and justice in society.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin with a warm greeting to the students and ask them to share their thoughts on what law, order, and justice mean to them. This serves as a precursor to the topic. Introduce the topic highlighting its importance in maintaining societal harmony.

Resources:

- Chalk board/whiteboard
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook

Learning Activities:

- Probing questions
- Brief class discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Definition and Importance (10 minutes)

- Define law, order, and justice.
- Discuss how they are interconnected and essential for a functioning society.
- Use the Bible to reference instances demonstrating the need for law and justice (e.g., Proverbs 21:15).

2. The Role of Law (10 minutes)

- Explain how law sets standards of behavior and protects citizens.
- Discuss the impact of law on individuals and communities.
- Engage students in a discussion about laws that impact their daily lives.

3. Order and Its Necessity (5 minutes)

- Discuss what order means in society and why it is necessary for peace and stability.
- Use examples of what happens when order breaks down (e.g., riots, crime).

4. Justice: An Equitable System (5 minutes)

- Explain the concept of justice in terms of fairness and equality before the law.
- Discuss the role of legal systems in providing justice and protecting the innocent.

Conclude with a summary of the discussion emphasizing the interplay between law, order, and justice in society.

- Use probing questions to encourage critical thinking, such as: "How do you see the role of science and technology in our everyday lives?" and "What environmental issues concern you the most today?"

- Facilitate a discussion on the definitions of science, technology, and environment. Engage students in defining each term using examples from current events, including how these concepts are intertwined with moral and ethical considerations from a Christian perspective.
- Move on to exploring Christian views on science and technology. Discuss how various scriptures, like Proverbs 1:7 and Genesis 1:26-28, can be interpreted to inform a Christian understanding of human innovation and environmental stewardship.
- Encourage students to reflect on the balance between technological advancement and environmental conservation through a Christian lens.
- Conclude this section by summarizing main points and ensuring students have grasped the definitions and perspectives discussed.

Resources:

- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 186-194
- Audio-visual material (short clips connecting science and faith)

Learning Activities:

- Group discussion
- Probing questions
- Reflection on Christian ethical teachings related to science and technology

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize key points covered in the lesson, emphasizing definitions and the Christian approach to science and technology relationships with the environment.
- Highlight the importance of integrating faith with scientific understanding while respecting God's creation.
- Prepare students for the next lesson by hinting at upcoming topics on environmental stewardship and the role of Christians in addressing climate change.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 186-194

Learning Activities:

- Quick question-and-answer session
- Final thoughts and takeaways

TERM:3

SUBJECT: CRE

TOPIC: CHRISTIAN APPROACHES TO SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND ENVIRONMENT

SUB TOPIC: THE MEANING OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY & ENVIRONMENT. CHRISTIAN VIEWS ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

1. Define science, technology & environment as understood in the contemporary world.
2. Discuss Christian views on science, technology & environment.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students warmly and introduce the topic of the day: "The meaning of science, technology, and environment; Christian views on science and technology."
- Engage students with a brief question to consider: "How do you think science and technology affect our environment?"
- Review the agenda: definition of key terms, discussion on Christian perspectives, and relevant scriptures.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB Book IV, Pages 186-194)

Learning Activities:

- Brainstorming session
- Probing questions

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

- Start by defining the key terms:
- Science: Systematic study of the natural world, based on observation, experimentation, and evidence.
- Technology: Application of scientific knowledge for practical purposes, leading to tools, machines, and methods to solve problems.

- Environment: The surroundings or conditions in which a person, animal, or plant lives or operates, inclusive of natural and built environments.
- Utilize the Bible and reference material to crunch down on how these terms intersect within contemporary society. Discuss how advancements in technology impact environmental issues (e.g., pollution, climate change).
- Transition into the Christian views on science and technology by exploring scriptures that advocate stewardship of the earth, such as Genesis 1:28 (the command to fill and subdue the earth) and the ethical responsibilities of using technology in light of creation care.
- Encourage students to express their thoughts and engage in discussions, guiding them with probing questions to deepen understanding and critical thinking on the beliefs associated with technology and environmental stewardship.

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB Book IV, Pages 186-194
- Audio-visual material (videos on environmental issues related to technology)

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions
- Probing questions
- Reflection on provided scripture classics

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the key points discussed, reiterating definitions and the Christian viewpoint on science, technology, and environment.
- Highlight the importance of responsible stewardship in blending faith with contemporary scientific understanding and technological advancements.
- Prepare students for the next lesson by outlining the relationship between faith and practical applications in the world today.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB Book IV, Pages 186-194)

Learning Activities:

- Recap discussion
- Prepare students with a reflective question for next lesson's focus

SUB TOPIC: THE MEANING OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY & ENVIRONMENT. CHRISTIAN VIEWS ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

1. Define science, technology, and environment as understood in the contemporary world.
2. Discuss Christian views on science, technology, and environment.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

Begin the lesson by greeting the students. Introduce the topic by explaining that it is vital to understand how humanity interacts with science and technology, especially concerning Christian views and ethical considerations. Share the relevance of the topic in today's fast-paced technological world.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/marker pen
- Textbook (KLB BOOK IV Pgs 186-194)

Learning Activities:

- Brainstorming: Ask students to think about what science, technology, and environment mean to them.
- Probing questions: Pose questions to get students to start thinking critically before diving into the content.

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

1. Defining key concepts:

- Science: Discuss how science is a systematic enterprise that builds and organizes knowledge in the form of testable explanations and predictions about the universe.
- Technology: Explain technology as the application of scientific knowledge for practical purposes, especially in industry.

- Environment: Describe the environment as the surroundings or conditions in which a person, animal, or plant lives or operates, including the impact of human activity.

2. Discussion on Christian Views:

- Explore Christian teachings regarding the stewardship of the environment, emphasizing that humans are caretakers of God's creation. Reference Bible passages that discuss stewardship, such as Genesis 1:28-30.
- Discuss the positive views Christians may hold toward science and technology as tools for serving human needs and improving quality of life but also address ethical concerns, such as the potential for misuse.
- Facilitate group discussions around key questions, such as:
 - How should Christians view scientific theories that may conflict with scriptural teachings?
 - What is the role of technology in promoting or harming the environment from a Christian perspective?

Resources:

- The Bible
- KLB BOOK IV Pgs 186-194
- Audio-visual materials (videos or slides on Christian perspectives on science and technology)

Learning Activities:

- Group discussions on defined concepts and Christian views.
- Brainstorming regarding student beliefs or experiences with science and technology from a Christian standpoint.
- Probing questions to encourage critical thinking.

Conclusion (5 minutes):

Summarize the key points by reinforcing the definitions of science, technology, and environment and the Christian perspective on these themes. Highlight the importance of responsibly using science and technology to protect and enhance the environment, and relate this back to stewardship principles found in scripture.

Prepare students for the next lesson by hinting at further exploration on the impact of technology on society and ethical considerations.

Resources:

- Chalk board/white board
- A piece of chalk/ marker pen

SUB TOPIC: CHRISTIAN RESPONSE TO IMPACT OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY ON THE ENVIRONMENT.

WEEK: _____ LESSON NO: _____

DATE _____ TIME _____

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to discuss Christian responses to the impact of science and technology on the environment.

LESSON PRESENTATION

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Greet the students warmly and invite them into the lesson.
- Introduce the topic of Christian responses to the impact of science and technology on the environment, explaining its relevance in today's world.

Explanations

Discussion

Lesson Content (30 minutes):

- Start with a brainstorming session where students can express what they think are the impacts of science and technology on the environment. Write down key points on the board.
- Provide an explanation of the major impacts of science and technology, including both positive and negative aspects. Discuss how scientific advances can lead to environmental degradation as well as beneficial solutions (e.g., renewable energy, conservation technology).
- Transition into discussing Christian perspectives on these issues. Use biblical references to support the idea that Christians are called to be stewards of the earth (Genesis 2:15).

- Form small groups where students can delve deeper into specific case studies of technological impacts on the environment. Each group can focus on a different aspect (climate change, pollution, deforestation) and prepare to share their findings.
- Conclude this section with a rich discussion based on the group work, inviting representatives from each group to present their findings to the class.

 Group Discussions
 Presentations

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Recap the key points discussed during the lesson, highlighting the importance of Christian stewardship in the face of scientific and technological advancements.
- Emphasize the importance of responsible action and prayer in making a positive impact on the environment.
- Encourage students to reflect on their own responses to science and technology and think about how they can be responsible stewards in their communities.
